Asean Open Pairs

Photo Finish

30 pairs competed in the Asean Open Pairs yesterday. Congratulations to Eirik Shr Natvik and Arut Blix Vaagsceter (pardon me if I spelt your names wrong!!), coming from behind to catch the 1st session leaders who looked almost invincible at the half-way mark in the 2nd session. Carmen Tuason and Marten Gustawsson came second, only less than 1 board behind. Gerald Tan and Siew Luie Soh, who led most of the way, had a disappointing 2nd session and have to contend with 3rd place.

Mixed Teams

Today the Asean Mixed Team gets underway with 14 teams competing for the honours. Good luck and good bridging.

Formats for Open, Women and Youth Teams

The Open series will consist of 14 rounds of Swiss, with 10-board matches over 2 days. The top 4 Asean teams will enter a final round robin of 16-board matches on the 7th to determine the winner. There will be no carry-over into the finals. The top 2 non-Asean teams will fight it out in a 48-board final, in 3 segments. The Women series will be a double round robin of 20-board matches, each in 2 10-board segments. The 1st RR will be on the 5th and the 2nd on the 6th. There will be no play-off. The Youth series will be a single round robin, followed by 1 round of Swiss. Each match will be of 10 boards. There will also be no play-offs.

Team numbers have been drawn for the Open and Women teams yesterday. Team numbers for the Youths will be drawn today as the overall number was still uncertain yesterday.
